Murderer Receives Death Penalty Second Time in 10 years

It was on September 20, 2001 that Rick Kimberly was sentenced to death for murdering his next door neighbour Anne Belle. Rick was known as a beloved family man and not murderer until that fateful night when he was visiting his neighbours.

Anne was reportedly sick and Rick had come over to see how she was doing. Anne's parents let Rick go see Anne not thinking anything of it.

Later when Mr. & Mrs. Belle went to go check on Anne that they realized her bedroom was covered in blood. They found Anne lying on the bathroom floor covered from head to toe in blood. Mr. Belle called the police and they arrived in less than 10 minutes of the phone call.

Rick was found 4 blocks from his house reportedly taking a walk. It was a stain of blood on his pants that contained Anne's DNA which proved him guilty in front of the court.

On September 22, 2001 Rick escaped the Alabama prison leaving no clue behind of where he was headed. Rick didn't thank his good fortune for letting him get away instead he turned into an even harder criminal. He looted many stores, stole cars, and murdered once again.

This time he killed loved father and husband, Joseph Stone. Joseph Stone was On June 12, 2010 walking home after work. Rick was found and detained at the Sumas border where he was trying to escape into Canada.

That evening he was flown back to the Alabama Prison and his next court hearing was set for June 15, 2010 where he was found guilty and sentenced to death.
